The Uptown Resource Center (URC) provides a wealth of resources and information for residents, community based organization, the business community and the general public.

The center provides office space for the University of Memphis, North Memphis Community Development Corporation, the Uptown Program Management Team, the City's Office of Faith-based Initiatives, and offices for the Uptown resident association leaders. The center also serves as a primary location for the operation of a GED Program coordinated through The Work Place, and other education enhancement programs and services.
